

Foothill's Classroom Improvement Grant

The classroom has evolved over the last few years, and pivoting from in-person teaching to virtual lessons and back again has many teachers trying to find the right resources for their new classroom format. Whether you're teaching in-person, virtually, or in a hybrid setting, you are probably realizing there are some new needs you haven't encountered before. Foothill's Classroom Improvement Grant can help equip you with the tools you need to provide the best learning experience for your students.

Here are all the details:

- Grants are awarded in amounts up to $500
- Grants are available to any certificated teacher, learning specialist, or librarian
- You do not need to be a member of Foothill Credit Union to apply
- Grants can be used for equipment, educational software, special books or materials
- No other person or entity has claim to the money or goods purchased. If the recipient leaves the school, any capital goods remain at the school property
- Grants will be announced in November. Depending on COVID restrictions at that time, checks may be mailed, so please include a current mailing address to receive the awarded funds.
- Recipients agree that their name/picture may be used for promotional purposes to enhance awareness of the Foothill's Classroom Improvement Grant
- One application per person
