Reasons to THINK LOCAL

REASONS TO THINK LOCAL

JOBS AND WAGES

- Local businesses are job creators
- Independent businesses spend more on local labor, goods and service providers
- In times of high unemployment, small businesses retain and create more jobs than large corporations do

REASONS TO THINK LOCAL

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

- Independent shops and restaurants help create walkable neighborhoods that reduce reliance on cars and pollution
- Small businesses tend to use public services and infrastructure more efficiently than giant megastores and shopping malls

REASONS TO THINK LOCAL

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

- When you shop local, your tax dollars stay within and improve your immediate community
- Local businesses tend to give back to the community through charity events, sponsorships and donations

NEIGHBORHOOD PRIDE

- Local businesses create and preserve your neighborhood's unique character
- A strong local vibe boosts tourism and can raise property values
- Neighborhood pride contributes to happy and close-knit communities
